

To whom it may concern:

I am thrilled to write a recommendation letter for Jordan Draper. I have known Jordan since she first stepped foot on OU's campus as a freshman. Since day one I have admired her strength, dedication, compassion, and consistency.

Over the last few years, I have had the opportunity to work with Jordan in a variety of areas. Each time I have worked with her, I have noticed her thoughtfulness and consideration for others are consistent in every facet of her life. She makes time for the things that are important to her and comes to every situation with an open mind, a creative spirit, and a strong voice. It's never a surprise to watch people gravitate to Jordan when looking for leadership, friendship, and guidance. Jordan has the ability to make others feel special and cared for even if she has only known them for a few minutes. I have seen Jordan blossom into a pivotal leader over the past few years and cannot wait to see where life takes her. Jordan's dedication to her education and extracurricular activities are noticed by more than just the people that directly work with her. Paired with those key pieces of her success, she makes impacts in the community. It's possible that if you go to a local elementary school on a given Friday morning, you'll see Jordan speaking to the importance of positivity, healthy lifestyles, education, and sport. It takes a special person to do that.

All in all, should I ever be fortunate enough to have a child, I hope they grow up to have someone like Jordan by their side. You will never have to worry about where Jordan is when you need her. She is a role model to the young kids watching her from the audience, and also to those that have been part of her growth the past few years. She has made a long-lasting impact on my life and I am so proud of the person she is becoming.

Sincerely,
